The MOST LOVED AND TRUSTED
CREATIVE BUILDERS IN SOUTH AFRICA

our STORY

Founded in 2016 by the dynamic duo Erin and Warren Turnbull, Happinest has been redefining creative innovation and delivering. They have consistently delivered exceptional designs for their clients for years, cementing them as one of the most loved and trusted creative builders in South Africa.

With Erin leading the charge in creative direction and Warren managing production and operations, this dream team combines their unique strengths to craft truly unforgettable experiences for their clients. Their highly skilled team of carpenters, welders, painters, and electricians, alongside a very capable project management and design team, ensures that every project exceeds expectations and drives innovation.

Erin's background in brand building and advertising, combined with Warren's expertise in production positions Happinest at the forefront of the industry. Together, they drive the company's creative vision, delivering stunning expo stands and innovative brand activations that elevate brands and leave a lasting impression.

TESTIMONIAL

“Happinest did an outstanding job at our event, building numerous stands that were both visually striking and refreshingly innovative. Each stand had its own unique, engaging concept that drew attendees in and made the show floor come alive. Their creativity shone through in every detail with fresh designs that made each space memorable.

The photo moment they created for us was a huge success, becoming a social media sensation and a highlight which people still speak about post-event. Their ability to blend creativity with functionality truly sets them apart. In addition, we have always found their team to be highly engaged, professional and easy to work with. We couldn't be happier with their work and highly recommend them for anyone looking to elevate their event experience.”
